3. CONTRACT TERMS
   a. Sale Price ..... $_____

4. NON-FINANCING /ALL CASH: This is an all-cash sale; no financing is involved, unless agreed upon in writing by both parties at a later date.

5. CLOSING: Buyer will deliver contract to National Title Services (Title Company), upon execution of the contract by both parties. Closing shall occur within 45 business days from the execution of this agreement, or within seven (7) days after objection to title has been cured, whichever date is later.

6. TITLE POLICY: Seller shall furnish to Buyer at Buyer's expense an Owner's Policy of Title Insurance issued by National Title Services (the Title Company) in the amount of the Sales Price, dated at or after closing, insuring Buyer against loss under the provisions of the Title Policy.

7. PROPERTY CONDITION: PROPERTY SOLD "AS-IS" SUBJECT TO DUE DILIGENCE: The Buyer is purchasing the Property in an "AS-IS" condition subject to a 45 Business Day Due Diligence Period. During Due Diligence, Buyer will need to access the property with Inspectors, Appraisers, Investors, Contractors, and potentially others. Rebuilt may also have professionals make condition determinations using pictures and videos. Termination During Due Diligence Period. If Buyer determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, before the expiration of the Due Diligence Period that the Interests and/or the Property is unacceptable for Buyer's purposes, Buyer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving to Seller written notice of termination before the expiration of the Due Diligence Period. In addition, upon such a termination, Buyer shall promptly return the Property Information to Seller, or certify to Seller that the Property Information has been destroyed. If Buyer does not give written notice of termination before the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

8. POSSESSION: The possession of the Property shall be delivered to the Buyer at closing. No Exceptions, unless specifically given in Section 19 of this contract.

9. PRE-MARKETING AGREEMENT: If vacant, and upon acceptance of this contract by Seller, Seller is to furnish buyer a key, or combination to lock box, to said Property and give Buyer permission to enter premises for inspections prior to closing. At Buyer's option, Buyer is allowed to display a For Rent, For Sale, or Cash for Houses sign in front of Property. Buyer has the right to market its contract interest in the Property in Buyer's sole discretion, which may include, but is not limited to listing the Property and Buyer's contract interest in the Property on any Multiple Listing Service ("MLS"), under the Authorization to Sign Listing Documents and Offers document.

10. PRORATIONS: Property Taxes, flood and hazard insurance, rents, maintenance fees, interest on any present loan and any prepaid unearned mortgage insurance premium which has not been financed as part of any present loan and which is refundable in whole or in part later shall be prorated through the Closing Date.

11. PROPERTY DOCUMENTATION: Seller to furnish Buyer a General Warranty Deed conveying title subject only to liens securing payment of debt created as part of the consideration, taxes for the current year, restrictive covenants and utility easements common to the platted subdivision of which the Property is a part and reservations and conditions permitted by this contract or otherwise acceptable to Buyer.

12. CASUALTY LOSS: If any part of Property is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty loss, Seller shall restore the same to its previous condition as soon as reasonably possible, but in any event by Closing Date. If Seller is unable to do so without fault, Buyer may terminate this contract.

13. DEFAULT: If Seller fails to comply herewith for any reason Buyer may either (a) enforce specific performance hereof and seek such other relief such as loss of profit from resale as may be provided by law or (b) terminate this contract, thereby releasing seller from this contract. If any party hereto shall file suit for breach of enforcement of this Agreement (including suits filed after Closing which are based on or related to the Agreement), the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all costs of such enforcement, including reasonable attorney's fees. If any party exercises its right to terminate due to the default of the other under the terms of this Agreement, the terminating party retains the right to pursue all legal rights and remedies against the defaulting party following termination.

14. REPRESENTATIONS: Seller represents that as of the Closing Date (a) there will be no unrecorded liens, assessments, or Uniform Commercial Code Security interests against any of the Property which will be satisfied out of the sales price, unless securing payment of any loans presently against said property, (b) any loans will be without default. If any representation in this contract is untrue on the Closing Date, this contract may be terminated by the Buyer. All representations contained in this contract shall survive closing.

15. SALES EXPENSES: The following expenses shall be paid at or prior to closing:
    A. Buyer's Expenses: Expenses stipulated to be paid by Buyer under other provisions of this contract.
    B. Seller's Expenses: Releases of existing liens, including prepayment penalties and recording fees; release of Seller's loan liability, tax statements or certificates, real estate transfer tax and or conveyance fees; and other expenses stipulated to be paid by Seller under other provisions of this contract.
    C. If Seller(s) fails to perform, they are responsible for any consequential damages, including any indirect expenses, incurred by the Buyer or the buyer's assignee including title cost, loan and sales processing and other closing costs.

16. RESALE OF PROPERTY: Seller agrees that Buyer on this contract retains "All Profit" whether by Note, Trade, or Cash in the event of resale or this property, simultaneous close or assignment of this contract. Seller understands that Buyer is an investor and is going to either: purchase the property and rent it, purchase the property and fix it for resale, sell the property as-is, or demolish the property and/or new build on the land.

17. ASSIGNMENT OF CONTRACT: Buyer may assign the contract. If assigned, all rights, interests, suits, claims, and titles in and to the contract will be assigned and the assignor will be released of all liability. Buyer reserves the right to assign this contract to an Assignee, through an Assignment Agreement. In the event the Buyer enters an Assignment Agreement with a third-party Assignee, the third-party Assignee will assume all the obligations and responsibilities of the Buyer. This specifically includes any responsibility of the Buyer to pay the Seller's closing costs as outlined in this Purchase and Sales Agreement. The Buyer is to be held harmless of this obligation and or any other obligations under this Purchase and Sales Agreement not specifically agreed upon in writing.

18. HOLD HARMLESS AND ASSUMPTION OF LIABILITY: In the event the Seller has any damages or other liabilities caused by a third party, Buyer is to be held harmless by the Seller for these damages or other liabilities. This specifically includes any third parties' duty to perform under a contract with the Buyer. Seller understands and assumes the risk of loss for any liability caused by a third-party action.

19. AGREEMENT OF PARTIES: This contract contains the entire agreement of the parties and cannot be changed except by their written agreement.

CONSUMER GUIDE TO AGENCY FOR REBUILT REALTY

Rebuilt Realty's primary mission is to provide market access to residential Real Estate Investors while also working with other buyers and sellers in all types of real estate transactions. All Rebuilt Realty's activities should be in our clients' best interests, and in the interest of creating win-win agreements with customers, vendors, etc. We strive to make our Team, the most competitive real estate investment organization in the industry. As professionals, we conduct ourselves in accordance with the Code of Ethics and the Standards of Practice of the National Association of Realtors® and in conformance with state law.

When Rebuilt Realty represents the SELLER/BUYER:

1. The brokerage owes the seller/buyer the duties of loyalty, obedience, confidentiality, accounting, and reasonable skill and care in performing duties contained in an agency agreement. The agent and brokerage are required to act solely on behalf of the seller's/buyer's interest to seek the best price and terms for the seller/buyer, whomever is represented by the brokerage.
2. Rebuilt Realty may act as a Dual Agent and represent both seller and purchaser.
3. Rebuilt Realty will cooperate with and compensate the buyer's agents who will continue to represent the buyer's best interest.
4. Rebuilt Realty may only represent the buyer or seller and may treat the non-represented buyer or seller (customer) honestly and fairly in the transaction.

When Rebuilt Realty does business with a CUSTOMER:

1. Rebuilt Realty frequently conducts business with non-represented buyers and sellers referred to as customers.
2. Rebuilt Realty owes customers an honest and fair transaction but will always hold a client relationship (and its fiduciary duties) above a customer relationship.
3. Rebuilt Realty does not encourage or prohibit customers from obtaining an agency relationship.

FAIR HOUSING STATEMENT
